Miller Family Book

A record of

THE DESCENDANTS OF

DANIEL D. AND MARY P. MILLER

July, 1955

Middlefield, Ohio

Preface

Knowing that there were others also interested in a Miller family book, I have for some time been trying to get together a record of the descendants of my great grandparents, Daniel D. and Mary P. Miller. It is now finished, as it is, overlooking mistakes and several family records that are in-incomplete.

I want to thank everyone for their cooperation in getting this book thus far.

DANIEL D. MILLER and MARY P. MILLER were married in 1874. She died in 1924 after being married for 50 years. He died in 1947, three months before his 96th birthday. He left behind 269 descendants.

They died leaving a testimony of leading honest, religious, and hard-working lives.

The following is a part of a letter that was written in 1934 by Jonas C. Miller, that was published in a local newspaper regarding his parents:

> On March 8, 1888, Daniel D. Miller, his wife and seven children arrived in Middlefield, Ohio from Holmes County, Ohio, and settled one mile south of Middlefield Center by the B. & O. railroad, and lived there two years, during which time their eighth child was born.
>
> In the spring of 1890, they moved to Troy township locating two miles east of Troy Center on the Spencer farm where their ninth child was born. They have since lived in Troy. In 1894 their 10th son was born. Twin sons died in infancy, were born in Holmes County previous to their coming here.
>
> Father Miller was for the first two years engaged in the manufacture of cheese in Middlefield, later he was in the slate roofing business and did much carpenter work and building in the community. He also operated a sawmill for several years. On June 26, 1924, mother was laid to rest after a short illness at the age of 75. Since then father has made his home with his son Levi in Troy. He is still in good health and actively engaged in his shop where he manufactures a bushel crate on which he has a patent, and makes and repairs various articles of furniture.
>
> This was written on his father's 83rd birthday.

The 10 sons are all living, while several are retired and partially retired, they are still considered in good health. Menno, the eldest, has reached 80 years of age.

Two of them, Andrew and Noah, are ordained in ministry.

They are now residing in four different states, still married, except the three older brothers, whose partners have passed away. They are:
